President's Message

Last Friday Sid Dalbosco, Stuart Hargreaves, Ron Sibley and I, together with our wives, represented the Club at a Gathering to Farewell Past Rotarian the Late Jack Peacock.

November will be a busy time for the Club with Spring Festival, Bright's Iconic Rod Run, Remembrance Day, and the Slide to be reinstalled. Dee Hedley has asked all members to advise where they can be rostered to assist so please advise her when you are available. We will complete the rosters at this week's meeting.

At this week's meeting our Guest Speakers will be the Adolescent Health Nurse, and class Teacher from the Health and Human Development class at Bright P-12 College, The "Oaks Day" Party for members, Partners and Friends will be held on November 6 2014. Patrick O'Shea is Clerk of the Course, and Michelle Chalwell is in charge of Fashions on the Field.

"Light Up Rotary" in 2014/15

Report from Lindsay Jolley

What a great evening to welcome our nine Brazilian Rotary Friendship Exchange friends from District 4480 in the state of São Paulo. We were shown some of the modern developed cities in their district, and exchanged six banners with the group. Thanks to Sue & John, Ela & Geoff, Fraser & Jenny, and John & Leanne, who along with me, hosted group members. Also a particular thank you to Jenny and Fraser for organising the Saturday evening welcome and the food for the Mt Buffalo BBQ.

It was good that PDG Ron and June were able to be there to welcome our guests. Club guest Courtney Ford was able to talk to Fernando Góngora about infectious disease medicine in the tropics.

We were all reminded that it is Minori's birthday on 2 November. Patrick invited members to form teams at a Bowls for Life evening at the Bowls Club on Friday 31 October to raise money for this year's Alpine Shire Relay for Life event. He also reminded members to sign up for the joint Rotary Clubs team for Relay for Life. Dee is still after members to fill places for our upcoming busy BBQ period. She also passed on the regards of Arnold Sparks to the club.

There will be an Oaks night at our 6 November meeting, and do not forget the Board meeting on 30 October.

Dee did a great job in her first go as acting Sergeant. If she is on again you better be cashed up. President Bruce has advised members that Jack Peacock's funeral service will be private.

PP Lindsay on behalf of President Bruce.
